

2023 OSHA Safety Calendar

Southeast Texas Region

OSHA regularly highlights safety-specific topics aimed at reducing job site hazards and creating safer overall environments. In addition, your BCH team offers insights and resources you can use to help mitigate risks in the workplace. Here, we've pulled that important information together into one convenient place.

Take note of upcoming safety events, and be sure to pass word along to your employees. It's all about making risk management more manageable, and being there for your team when it matters.

FEBRUARY	1 st Posting of OSHA 300A Recordkeeping Requirements Update
	Ladder Safety Month >>
MARCH	2 nd Electronic Submission of OSHA Form 300A Please set an early-morning reminder to submit your electronic forms through the OSHA website. You can view instructions for the new login procedure at login.gov .
	17 th Stand Down to Prevent Struck-By Hazards
APRIL	Distracted Driving Awareness Month >> 17 th - 21 st National Roadway Work Zone Awareness 28 th Workers Memorial Day
MAY	National Electrical Safety Month >> Mental Health Awareness Month >> 1 st - 5 th National Stand-Down to Prevent Falls in Construction 26 th OSHA Heat Illness Prevention Campaign Launch – “Don’t Fry Day”
JUNE	1 st Hurricane Season Starts 13 th National Forklift Safety Day 19 th - 23 rd Trench Safety Stand Down
AUGUST	Safe + Sound Week (date TBD) >> 28 th - September 1st Labor Rights Week
SEPTEMBER	National Preparedness Month >> Suicide Prevention Awareness Month >>

For additional information, or if you're interested in scheduling a safety and risk evaluation for your organization, contact:

Michael “Mike” Berno, SHEP, CSHO, CAE, FSR

Director of Safety & Risk Services

713.688.1500 d | 713.478.7577 m | mike.berno@bch-insurance.com